Write an essay about an influential person in your life.
If you were to have special power, what would it be?
What makes a book good?
How may technology improve one's education?
Come up with a question.
Which personality type(s) are the most important in society?
How do words reveal one's personality?
Would you reread a book?
What are your thoughts about online books?
"Once small thought can change many people's lives." Discuss.
What is the most revolutionary scientific invention to this day, and why?
Which is more important – creativity or intelligence?
There is a lot of meaning in music that has to be uncovered. Discuss.
Why is science important to you?
What is your view of education in your current school and how do you think it can be improved?
Are you more like a rock or a feather? Explain.